

COMING TO ORLANDO

THE AMANAH OF PARENTHOOD

RAISING A GENERATION OF PURPOSE

WHY ATTEND?

- Discover how the life of Imam Muhammad al-Jawad challenges how we view our children's potential and why we often underestimate them.
- Learn how to raise children with confidence, responsibility, and purpose from an early age.
- Understand how to prioritize character over achievement in a world focused on success.
- Gain practical ways to nurture empathy so your children care for others, not just themselves.
- Reflect on the kind of legacy you are building through your parenting.

CORE THEMES

- Trusting Our Children: What Imam Jawad teaches us about responsibility and leadership at a young age.
- Character Over Success: Raising children grounded in akhlaq, not just achievement.
- Building Families That Care: Expanding the home to include responsibility toward orphaned and vulnerable children.
- Parenting Through Pressure: Creating stability through values, even in imperfect environments.
- Legacy & Impact: Raising children who carry your values forward long after you.
